TO MAINTAIN THE SKIN HEALTH OF
YOUR LOVED ONE

Introducing the full TENA ProSkin Range

Specifically designed to help lower the risk of incontinence related skin irritation.

When looking after a loved one, you want to be sure you're giving them the best care. Keeping skin dry is crucial to helping prevent incontinence-related skin irritation. TENA ProSkin Underwear absorb in seconds to keep skin dry - working alongside our wet wipes and barrier cream keep skin clean and protected. This 3-step process helps maintain skin health.

TENA Proskin Underwear

ConfioAir® 100% Breathable

ConfioAir fully breathable technology helps wick away moisture from skin's surface.

Breathable materials that allow air to circulate for skin health and comfort.

Our underwear neutralizes odors instantly and continuously

Soft anti-leakage barriers for extra protection.

Triple protection and soft comfort helps your customers loved ones to stay dry, secure, and confident all day.

Just like underwear, this pant stretches to fit the body, ensuring that it always stays in place for comfort and security.

TENA ProSkin Barrier Cream

Contains natural caring oil and vitamin E to soothe and moisturize fragile skin.

Water-repellent layer for preventative use in areas which show early signs of redness.

Free from perfume and preservatives, ideal for those with sensitive skin.

TENA Proskin Wet Wipes

3-in-1 skincare for everyday personal hygiene.

Cleanses, protects and moisturises the skin.

Soft and thin wipes to provide a gentle touch for fragile skin.

Designed for adults XL size, 30 x 20 cm is approximately two times bigger than an average baby wipe.

Easy one-handed dispensing, no rinsing or drying is required.

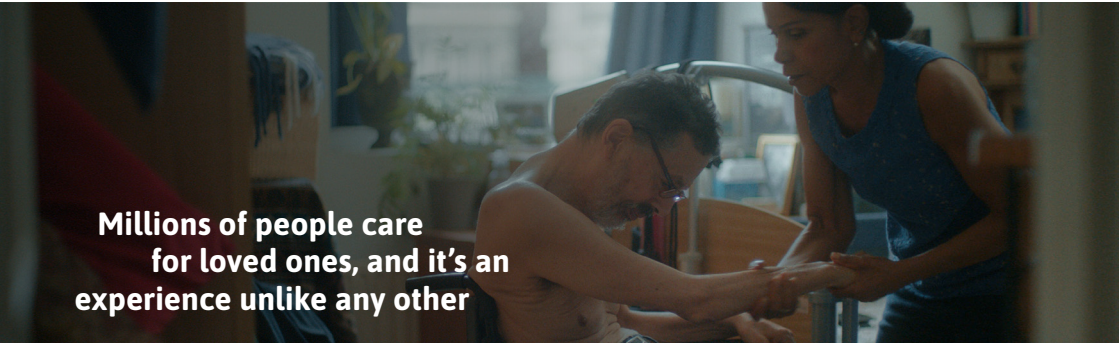

The Skin Health Alliance accredits all TENA Proskin products so you can be sure they are always skin-friendly.

Step by step in the TENA Protects Program we are reducing our carbon footprint to leave a better mark on the planet together with you.

Millions of people care for loved ones, and it's an experience unlike any other

There can be no joy like it, no pain like it – and ultimately no love like it.

With over 60 years' experience supporting carers, TENA understands the realities faced. Dealing with incontinence is just one of the challenges. Family carers experience many other physically, mentally, and emotionally demanding situations. Carers do an amazing job, and we want to everything we can to support them. When you feel supported, you can do the best for the person you're looking after.
